

General Terms and Conditions

1. All listed services and offers will be performed exclusively and without any exception based on these terms and conditions. Variations of the terms must be set out in writing.
2. The registration has to be in writing and must be confirmed by the organizer. Your registration will only be valid in written form.
3. When registering, 50 % of the participation fee must be paid by bank transfer. The remaining amount is payable in cash at the beginning of the course.
4. Withdrawal: When withdrawing up to 14 days before the beginning of the course, only the deposit will be refunded. When withdrawing two weeks before the course is due to begin, the total fee must be paid unless the participant names a binding replacement.
5. If the course is cancelled for reasons of the organizer or an act of God, the full deposit will be reimbursed. No further claims will be valid.
6. Object of the registration agreement is the claim for course performance and not for anticipated success.
7. The participation is at one's own risk. The participant must have accident insurance. The organizer, trainer, facility operator and his assistants are only liable for gross negligence and intention, but not for an act of God.
8. The participating horses must be free of diseases. The horses must be covered by liability insurance. Proof must be furnished at the beginning of the course.
9. Organizer and trainer can be different. A liability disclaimer is not deductible herefrom.
10. The daily duration of the course will not exceed 8 hours.
11. Disputes will be in each and every case clarified by arbitration proceedings.
